6. SYNOPSIS: (if more space is needed, use reverse side.) a. This policy establishes points of contact (POC) for the control of nuisance animals in Fort Bragg housing areas. b. Definitions. (1) Domestic animals. A tame animal or pet. (2) Nuisance wildlife. A wild animal causing property damage or disturbance. c. Points of contact for reporting nuisance animals. (1) The POC for stray or unrestrained domestic animals is the Provost Marshal, telephone 907-4813. The Provost Marshal will determine the best way to handle stray or unrestrained domestic animals on a case-by-case basis. The military police will generally transport domestic animals which are in violation of XVIII Airborne Corps and Fort Bragg Regulation 40-5, 23 April 1998, to the post veterinarian facility for holding and disposition. (2) The POC for nuisance wildlife is the Installation Pest Management Coordinator, 907-2160. (3) Due to proximity of housing areas to forested areas, there is a good chance that residents may encounter what appears to be abandoned or injured wildlife. THESE ANIMALS SHOULD NOT BE DISTURBED. In most cases, the parent returns to care for their young and only in rare cases are they actually abandoned. Residents should report injured wildlife to the Wildlife Branch, 396-7506. d. In accordance with XVIII Airborne Corps and Fort Bragg Regulation 40-5, the following POCs are listed for removal of dead animals: (1) Wildlife Branch, 396-7506, will remove wildlife animal carcasses (e.g., deer) from roads and training areas. (2) Pest Management Section, 907-2106, will remove "road kill" domestic animals when owner cannot be identified or contacted, and "road kill" wildlife in the cantonment areas, and transport to building 2-7402 for incineration.
